ABSTRACT

The French Revolution became the most important history in eighteenth century for France and the world. The novel Perfume by Patrick Suskind motivated the writer to make an analysis about the particular topic in this paper. This study is to enrich reader's knowledge about French Revolution's effects in many aspects of human life, especially for women's movement. References for the study were obtained from Bina Nusantara library, Library at Senayan and not least, the Internet. The data is supported with the analysis process that provides the explanation for each aspect found in the novel to answer the statement of the problem. The analysis will show and explain about the relationship between French Revolution's and the effect in the character of Madame Gaillard in the novel, Perfume. This paper will also include the conclusion of the analysis and the summary for further study.
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Inner cover .................................................................................................................. i
The Approval of Soft Cover .......... .................................................................i
Abstract .................................................................................................................. ii
Acknowledgement ......................................................................................... iii
Table of Contents ...................................................................................... iv

CHAPTER 1 : INTRODUCTION ........................................................................... 1

1.1 Background of the Study ................................................................. ..1
1.2 Statement of the Problem ............................................................... 3
1.3 Goals and Function ........................................................................... 4
1.4 Scope and Limitation ................................................................. 4
1.5 Research Methods ................................................................. 4

CHAPTER 2 : THE FRENCH REVOLUTION AND ASPECTS OF WOMEN'S LIVES .................................................................................. 6

2.1 Introduction ................................................................. 6
2.2 The French Revolutions ............................................................... 6
2.3 The Conditions Before French Revolution ................................. 9

2.3.1 The Population ............................................................... 10
2.3.2 The Economic ............................................................... 11
2.3.3 The Health and Bad Nutrient ........................................... 12
2.3.4 The Labor ............................................................... 14

2.4 Aspects of Women’s Lives in Eighteenth Century ................. 15

2.4.1 Motherhood ............................................................... 16
2.4.2 Widowhood ............................................................... 18
2.4.3 Foundling Home ........................................................... 19
2.4.4 Woman's Work Identities...............................................21
    2.4.4.1 The Wet Nurse....................................................22
    2.4.4.2 Investment and Management of Property......................24

CHAPTER 3: THE EFFECT OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION ON MADAME GAillard'S SOCIAL LIFE IN NOVEL

PERFUME: THE STORY OF MURDERER

BY PATRICK SUSKIND.....................................................26

3.1 Introduction............................................................26

3.2 Characterizations of Madame Gaillard..............................28
    3.2.1 Less of Emotion....................................................29
    3.2.2 Discipline..........................................................30
    3.2.3 Independent........................................................32
    3.2.4 Greedy..............................................................33
    3.2.5 Ambitious..........................................................34

3.3 The French Revolution's Effect on Madame Gaillard's life.......35
    3.3.1 The Population....................................................36
    3.3.2 The Economic Crisis..............................................36
    3.3.2 The Poverty.......................................................38
    3.3.3 The Health.........................................................39
    3.3.4 The Labor..........................................................40

CHAPTER 4: CONCLUSION...................................................42

CHAPTER 5: SUMMARY (In Indonesian)...................................44

Bibliography

Curriculum Vitae