

ABSTRACT

This paper points out the Civil Rights Movement which are happened in the My Story by Rosa Parks, The first aim of the study is to figure out the march of Civil Rights Movement in the era. The second goal is to show the major character's struggle who is Rosa Parks together with others authority black Civil Rights Movements' Leaders, to step out the disrespectful treatments which happened for the minority. The third achievement is to sum up the precious results of the Civil Rights Movement. It can be concluded that the analysis shows there are listed of movements such as the bus boycott and long march after Rosa's refusal and her courted which are participated for the equality laws of rights through the multicultural nation. The second conclusion shows how tough the main character keeps on struggling to fight against the city code that was made to separate the black from the white and some authority man who role the people for inconvenience. And the third result shows that at last after the movements there are legalized rules for the equality rights which protect the fair living.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all, I would like to thank Father in the name of Jesus Christ who is the one and the only savior of my life in Heaven for giving me the strength in writing this paper and finished it. Thank for everything including the temptation which is done right in His plan, in His command, and in His perfect time to create me as one of His masterpiece.

Best regard for my mentor, Mr. Na'fan Tarihoran SPd., M. Hum., for resting his valuable time, support and idea to guide and encourage me for composing this paper. Thankful for him who always figures out the best on me and makes me better than it used to be.

I would like to thank Mrs. Ienneke Indra Dewi as the Dean of Faculty of Letters, and Miss. Risa as the Head of English Department and Mrs. Wiwik Andriani who give the opportunity to write my paper and thankful to Mrs. Tetty as the secretary of English Department who is able reached on her time.

I would place the best appreciation for my beloved single parent, who has given birth, expanded my knowledge, guided and maintained my growth with unlimited love forever. She is the one and the only precious person in my heart who always encourages me for everything and sharpens my ability through her experience that brings the best out of me. Mom, you are wonderful created for me and enriched my life for ever after.

Through my best friends whom I prefer to call angels of world. Thank for my brother, Denny who has shared my privacy including my room until present at your growing age, for 'charlie angels who are formed of Ailie or Winda Sadelie, Marvyanti who is addicted of ducks, Octa Yusnita and Yuliana who have shared most of the sweet memories of being teenagers. Girls, for whatever have done between us, it never ever change our commitment for being best friends. Best friend which commitment stays for a lifetime, was uniquely created and placed in our life by God. Himsiesrs who have shared the class in a day along in the campus and special thankful for Leo whom I used to calling bello or hybernating bear. You are amazing created by God to bright up the people among you and there is still more temptatation moreover when the cross has been on your shoulder. But remain you that there is always the way out and makes you better through it all and at last the best out of the best will come to you. Thanks for giving me everything that I have never thought before such as an unforgotten surprise in my birthday, giving me secret chocolate to recover my bad day and assisting wherever I go. Welfrey who has fulfilled my life since senior high, you has become the one of hearted-guy where I share my tears and pass the odd days. Keep struggling for your love because the perfect sacrifation of love brings you the perfect woman for rest of your life. Best hug goes to chubby or Harsanto who has been my partner in guiding, canvassing and assisting when I worked in Citibank and your characteristic and man's views have colored mine for finding out my future soulmate. For this recent days when a new angel comes and shares my time, Fanny has done the part of it. He has enlarged my world views, remained me for untouchable life that I have never experienced before, and shared both of the odd and even story at night. There are listed angels who can not be stated above but there is always warmth place beneath my heart for all of you.

Everything that has done through our life, has never changed the real commitment. Friends always stick together. (Umbrella – Rihanna ft. Jay Z.) God did never promise day without pain but He did promise the way out through all temptation.
