ABSTRACT

This paper is focusing on a drama by Neil Stratton, Age of Swirl. In this modern world, 21st century, women still encounter gender-based discrimination. The goal of the study were to find out gender inequality that happened in the drama through Crista Volucci's action, and the effect of it. The research methodology that been used to conduct the theories was library research in BiNas University and UI library. While the analysis in this paper discussed about gender discrimination issues and Crista's characteristics as the main character using gender discrimination theory. From the analysis, it can be concluded that Crista suffers from gender discrimination, and the impact of it makes Crista become a stronger and mature person.
