ABSTRACT

The goals of the paper were to find the differences, to find the causes of the changed plot, and to analyze the purpose of these changes between the movie Snow White and the Huntsman and the short story Little Snow White by Brother Grimm. The method applied was library research. Analysis was done by doing intrinsic such as plot, characters and extrinsic such as new historicism theory. The result shown the development of character Snow White changed from passive to the active woman and also made the changed of plot to be more action than the short story. It can be concluded that development has been caused by the time the story is made and the author to make the movie live in the year of its creation.
