ABSTRACT

The research is about the analysis of the main character’s structure of mind using psychoanalysis theory, and the main character’s dissociative identity disorder. The purposes of the research are to find out about main character’s structure of the mind based on psychoanalysis theory and his dissociative identity disorder. The research is expected to provide knowledge for the society about human’s mind in psychoanalysis based theory, and dissociative identity disorder. The research is based on library research where the books, journals, articles, and previous thesis become the references for the theories. The process of the research has obtained the result that the main character is having a great conflict within his mind that finally leads the main character into having the chaos of his mind and develops dissociative identity disorder.

Key words: Dissociative Identity Disorder, Psychoanalytic criticism, Fight Club Movie