Abstract

There are many ways for people to learn English, one of them through technology. From the developing of technology which growing rapidly, the Internet is the most technology using by the people to learn English. One of the innovations of the Internet in learning English is online gaming. Through this study, the writer wants to share to the readers about one of the karaoke online game, Showtime that offers to improve the players pronunciation skill with fun method. The methods of this study qualitative method where the writer records the sound that produces from the players as the respondents during they sing the song. The result of this study is 4 from 7 respondent increases in the pronunciation achievement sound /ð/, /θ/, /æ/, /ɛɪ/, /əʊ/ and /aʊ/ and through this game they also get new vocabulary in the lyric of song and improve their listening skills.

Keywords ; the Internet, Showtime online game, learning English, pronunciation, achievement