

ABSTRACT

This research paper aims to study the motivational standards of the second semester grammar students. What are the motivational standards of the second semester grammar students and how they effects to the students' achievement. The goals of this research paper are to find out the motivational standards and to find out whether there is a relationship between the students' motivation and the students' achievement. In the study of motivational standards, the writer did library research and the writer chose the questionnaires related to the six motivational standards. The result is pretty amazing it shows that the students' motivation affects the students' achievement.

Key word: Motivation, motivational standards, achievement